C. H. K. Curtis, Thanks Mr. Hoover, Don't Worry The Bankers Sing Mr. Knox of 'The Bowery'

Current Events

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1924, by Star Company)

CYRUS H. K. CURTIS published in his newspapers yesterday, and the day before, two editorials on Japan and the league, for which he deserves the thanks of the United States. Japan's hatred of this country, her plain intention to attack, as soon as she dares, her insolent demand that the League of Nations shall countenance her claim to regulate the immigration laws of the United States, are made admirably clear in Mr. Curtis' newspapers.

JAPAN TALKS of racial equality. There is no question or denial of racial equality. Japan can have all of it she wants, and for that matter, RACIAL SUPERIORITY, provided she confines it TO JAPAN.

You recognize the racial equality of the man across the street, but when he says, "Being your racial equal, I demand the right to break into your house, settle there and marry your daughter," you reply, "Try it, and I'll shoot you."

SECRETARY HOOVER, worried, suggests that the public ownership of railroads is brother of the "Reds"—which means a Bolshevist.

Did Mr. Hoover and others, so much distressed about public ownership of public monopolies, notice the Prince of Wales' letter accepting membership in the Pressmen's Union? That note was headed, "Private Car Balmoral, CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS."

THE PRINCE OF WALES is son of the King of Great Britain and Emperor of India, whose Prime Minister is a labor man, head of the Labor Socialist party.

And that same Prince of Wales is riding on the "Canadian National Railways," owned by the people of Canada. Why, Mr. Hoover, is it all right and quite possible for the people of Canada, France and other countries to own and manage honestly their railroads? Is the American advocate, like La Follette, who ventures to suggest United States ownership of railroads, a "Red" and a Bolshevist? Is the American nation too incompetent and dishonest to do what other nations do?

BIG BANKERS, thousands of them, gathered in Chicago and felt quite happy yesterday. They sang songs waiting for the speaking to start, and told each other, "Business is fine." But one little crumpled rose leaf is in the soft financial matters. "There is among the bankers uncertainty over social unrest."

Sorry to disturb bankers, but that uncertainty is a good thing. It makes bankers and other important men think; it always has made them think, and it's about the only thing that DOES make them think—about the little people. Who notices a mule that doesn't kick?

THERE WAS such uncertainty among the "better element" in the days of the Grecchi before Christ was born. There has been more or less of that uncertainty ever since. And where the uncertainty has been LACKING, there has been trouble.

IF LOUIS XVI. of France had been a little "uncertain about social unrest" he might have saved his head. But in July he went hunting, and later wrote the word "nothing" in his diary, because he hadn't shot anything that day. The people, however, had "shot something" when they pulled down the Bastille.

It's a good thing that intelligent bankers interest themselves in "social unrest," for that means STABILITY.

THOSE American bankers in Chicago, representing the greatest financial power in the world today, choose as their head W. E. Knox, president of New York's Bowery Savings Bank, an institution with resources amounting to more than $20,000,000.

MR. KNOX says the savings bank account "is the best cure in the world for Bolshevism, radicalism and all revolutionary discontent."

Waltham Watch Officials and Strikers Must Give Board the Facts Under Oath

Arlington Dentist and His Brother Refuse to Give Parent $8 a Week

The State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration, after repeated failures of attempts to end the Waltham Watch & Clock Company strike, today prepared to use all its powers in an effort to fix the blame for the strike.

It began by issuing summonses to officials of the company and members of the strike committee to appear at a hearing October 8 in the council chamber in the Waltham City Hall.

At that time the board, under power given it by statute, will examine witnesses under oath.

Among those summoned today were: President Frederick C. Dumaine, Superintendent J. E. Bourne and Vice-President Friedstone of the company, and President Lines Faulkner, Vice-President Irving Hart and Secretary Howard Mayhew of the strike committee.

MEETING TODAY.

Officials of the city and leading business men of Waltham were invited to attend a meeting today at K. of C. Hall, at which the strikers offered an explanation and refutation of the charge by Federal Commissioner of Arbitration Charles G. Wood that the strikers had refused a fair offer of settlement.

There was no disturbance about the factory today, and only a few of the police brought from Newton to keep order remained.

At the request of the strike committee, strikers have ceased to picket the remaining workers or to wave yellow handkerchiefs. They submitted today the singing of "America" and the waving of flags.

"The Star Spangled Banner" was

Dr. John Hamilton Guttrie, prominent Arlington dentist, and his brother Robert, manager of an Arlington dairy, were sentenced today in East Cambridge District Court to thirty days each in the House of Correction for refusing to support their mother.

The mother, Mrs. Catherine Guttrie of No. 14 Dix street, is a widow, sixty-two years old, and is under the care of a physician. Until forced she worked in a department store.

In addition to the thirty day sentence, the brothers were ordered to pay their elderly mother $8 a week each. They appealed.

MAKES $300 A YEAR.

Last year Dr. Guttrie made only $5,000—nearly $100 a week. The brother Robert has a good position. The dentist lives in Devereux street, while his brother lives at No. 11 Belknap street, both Arlington.

A year ago, the widow testified, she first became in straightened circumstances and appealed to Dr. Guttrie for aid. He ordered her out of his home, she said, saying he wanted nothing to do with her.

On another occasion, the son Robert struck her when she asked for a drink of water. The police came in on that episode. As she lay on the floor Robert's wife, according to the mother, laughed and said: "Let her die."

Robert testified, when it came his

First Great Scandal of Game Bared in 1920

THE first big scandal of modern baseball broke in 1920 after the Chicago White Sox, American League champions, had "thrown" the 1919 World Series to the Cincinnati Reds. Chicago players barred forever were: Cicotte, Jackson, Weaver, Risberg, Felsch, Williams, Gandil and McMullin.

Later it was learned that in 1918, Lee Magee of the Cincinnati Reds conspired with Hal Chase of the same club to "throw" a ball game in Boston, for the gamblers and both were blacklisted.

In 1921, Bennie Kauff, Giants outfielder, was barred because of "conduct detrimental to the game" in an automobile-stealing court case.

In 1922, Phil Douglas, star pitcher in the '21 World Series was exiled because he had written a letter to Leslie Mann of the St. Louis Cardinals, offering to sell out on the New York Giants. Heinie Zimmerman, third baseman, also was put under the ban for dealings with New York gamblers.

I'm going to tell it to the baseball writers of the country, that they may know the truth and not be misled by the lies that have been printed about me.

turn, that his mother was "foxing" during the water affair. He declared flatly that he would not support her.

"Let her go out and work," he said.

The dentist son declared in his testimony that he had always helped his mother until recently. He declared her to be suffering from "a bad disposition."

"She should go to work or go to a home," said Dr. Guttete. He also refused his aid, declaring that he had lost all his love and respect for her.

Judge Counihan, with eyes that were a bit narrower than his wont, said:

"I never before saw a case like this. Unfortunately—or fortunately—the lost affection on the part of the sons does not explain satisfactorily their refusal to support their mother."

Then he imposed sentence.

Man who founded 500,000 ice business is shown waiting on two young customers in a Brooklyn grocery store. He disappeared from Brockton two years ago, after erecting ponds for his body got a job at $15 a week. Washburn said he was happy in the new work and would "make good at it just as I made good in the ice business." But tears fell from his eyes as he spoke, for he claims two of his sons took his ice business away from him.

John E. Edgerton, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, calls Senator La Follette "that arch demagogue" and "the nation's chief liability."

More trouble for John W. Davis, in Massachusetts and other New England States. Dr. Mary E. Woolley, president of Mt. Holyoke College, favors the election of Mr. Davis, she says, "largely because of his views on the League of Nations and his carrying on of the Wilsonian traditions."

ICE MAN WILL GET A COOL RECEPTION

Wife Charges Husband Hasn't Supported Her 8 Years Since Their Mariage

Brockton, Oct. 2.—If Edward A. Washburn ever cools off and returns to his ice business, and his home at No. 360 Quincy street, he'll be let into the house, but there'll be no damage done to any fatted calf, nor will there be anything special waiting for him on the ice.

Mrs. Washburn, his wife, made that clear today, in the light of Washburn's reported statement in New York that he left home because of family troubles. The wife admitted that she is sore.

"Mr. Washburn never left home because of any domestic trouble," she said. "He left Brockton because his business was going to pieces and he didn't have the courage to stay and face it.

"He had no trouble at home, but he was not on friendly terms with two married sons, who are competitors of their father in the same business. My sons formerly were in business with their father, but they couldn't get along, and set up for themselves."

Mrs. Washburn was asked if she would welcome her husband back if he returned.

"He would have a home here, any way," she replied with narrowed eyes. "I would not order him out. Naturally I am a very sore at the way he has acted.

"He left me with my daughter, a girl in her twenties, who has been an invalid for ten years. There was no occasion for his going away like that."

The runaway ice man is working in a Brooklyn grocery store for $15 a week and living at the Salvation Army Hotel in the Bowery.

MARSHAL CAN'T SEE "SERGEANT" RYAN

Haverhill, Oct. 2. — Marshal Thomas H. Rollins can't be hurried into doing what he doesn't want to do, even by the City Council.

At its last meeting the Council passed three orders, the aggregate effect of which was to make Patrolman Edward G. J. Ryan a temporary sergeant in charge of traffic.

The marshal has not carried out the instructions of the city fathers, and shows no tendency to do so.

Taking advantage of the technical fact that they did not stipulate any particular date, he said today:

"No time has been set for carrying out the orders of the Council. I am very busy. I must consider this proposition and find out what is best for the police department. I will let the people know when I intend to make any change."

WHEAT GAINS 3 CENTS AT $1.50 A BUSHEL

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Wheat on the Board of Trade rose today to $1.50 a bushel for May delivery. This represented an overnight advance of more than three cents a bushel, with all deliveries of wheat and rye here touching a new high record for the season. Urgency of foreign demand for breadstuffs was the chief apparent cause.

Today's price on May wheat is the highest here since 1921, when the high was $1.87.

Meanwhile rye had made a sensational leap of 5 cents, selling at $1.32, May delivery.

J. P. Hornung's Papyrus was second and M. Gerahdine Parth was third. Ten ran.

Teresina won by half a length, with three lengths between Papyrus and Parth. The betting was: Teresina, 7 to 2 against; Papyrus, 5 to 1, and Parth, 7 to 1.

JANITOR TIED UP AND ROBBED OF $905

CHARLES HEMEON

Two armed men got Hemeon out of bed on a hurry call, then bound him and went through his pockets. They got $800 in real money and $105 of his personal savings. Then they offered to kill him if he didn't tell where there was more money.

comer to join him and a young man pushed through the portiere, slipping on a black mask as he did so.

Drawing a revolver, he ordered the frightened cobbler to turn over to him a sum of money he withdrew from a bank a few days ago.

Only $110 of it remained, and the cobbler had it in a wallet in his pocket. He turned it over. The bandit took the money out and threw the wallet in his victim's face.

Then he slapped and kicked Caferella as a reminder that he must remain quiet, and ordered him to the furthermost corner of the back room.

Caferella was half crazed with fear and when his formidable visitor departed he locked up his store and ran home. Half an hour later his wife managed to get from him a coherent story of what had happened.

A nephew informed the police and a search for the bandit was begun. He is described as young, wearing a brown suit and a light cap.

attempted, but the words and the range was too much for most of them.

In an address to the 2,600 strikers, Senator David I. Walsh denounced the attitude of the company officials and declared that a continuation of the concern's policy will result in its "reaping a sad ending."

"I wouldn't be here," he said "if your cause wasn't a just one. I am here to denounce this system and demand a readjustment of our economic system so that labor will receive a fair return. Without justice for all, no government is worth while.

"You're making a fight peacefully and lawfully and you're going to win. It may be postponed for a time, but you're going to triumph ultimately."

ANTHRAX FROM SHAVING BRUSH KILLS EDITOR

AGED JANITOR IS ROBBED AND BEATEN

Charles Hemeon, sixty-two-year-old janitor of the apartment block, No. 72 Batavia street, Back Bay, was bound, gagged and robbed of collected rentals amounting to $800 and personal savings of $105. Two armed thieves, about twenty-three years of age each, are sought.

Early today Hemeon was awakened from sleep by persistent ringing of the janitor's night bell. Figuring that trouble had developed in one of the suites, Hemeon dressed hurriedly and stepped from his apartment.

The robbers then threw him across a bed and bound his hands and feet with a necktie one of the bandits wore.

Hemeon's wrists, securely bound, were moved to a point below the knees where the robbers used a window cord for fastening. A piece of tool sheeting served as a gag.

A search of Hemeon's clothing netted the robbers $105. One of the men spoke to Hemeon in a low tone of voice. "Stay where you are and we will send someone to you," he said.

Addressing Hemeon, one of the bandits said: "I've a good mind to kill you at that. There's more money in this joint and you know it. Now where is it?" The janitor was prevented from replying by the gag.

TRICKS OF RUM PIRATES ARE REVEALED

Seized Ships and Sometimes Collected Insurance on "Stolen" Cargoes

New York, Oct. 2.—United States District Attorney Hayward has ordered an investigation to be conducted here in connection with the statements of Max Jerome Phaff, alleged pirate, under arrest in France, in which he named a number of men as members of a bootlegging pirates' gang.

Evidence which already has been gathered in an investigation, started late February by Department of Justice men and prohibition agents, has revealed the existence of a New York and Canadian gang of pirates which sometimes actually seized ships and at other times collected insurance on cargoes which they represented as having been taken by pirates.

The headquarters of the band were in this city, according to Prohibition Director R. A. Merrick, and they operated out of Canada, shipping liquor from St. John, N. B., presumably for Cuba or Bermuda, but discharging the cargoes off Long Island. Mr. Merrick said the investigation revealed, and others had been sold off Atlantic Highlands, N. J.

The members of the crew on the schooner Lutzen from which the liquor was stolen, were handcuffed and held prisoners for more than two weeks while the liquor was being sold. After the cargo had been disposed of, the prisoners were taken to Bermuda and released. What became of the Lutzen has never been learned.

John M. Isaacs of Montreal, a member of the schooner's crew, furnished the investigators with their information.

Gave Frenchmen a Good Lesson, Phaff Declares

Brest, France, Oct. 2 (A.P.).—Bootlegging and rum running are essentially American institutions into which the New York "rum ring" will permit no foreigner to intrude, Max Jerome Phaff told travelling companions, according to affidavits filed with Commandant Fournier of the French Naval Corps, which is investigating the Mulhouse piracy. Phaff, a New Yorker, is charged with complicity in this piracy in which the French steamer was looted of 36,000 cases of whiskey off the Canadian coast last July.

"I am one of the kings of the American bootleggers," Phaff is quoted in the affidavits as informing his fellow prisoners. "We don't want any foreigners horning into this business. We just wanted to give these Frenchmen a good lesson."

Commandant Fournier said he was inclined to believe the defendant, instead of being a "king of the bootleggers," was merely "a very small cog in the huge machinery of American rum-running."

The magistrate said that, from the information filed in his court, a man of the name of Adelman of New York City is the man "higher up" who furnished funds in unlimited amounts for the smuggling of liquor into the United States.

HOLD BROCTON MAN AS FAIR BOOTLEGGER

Benjamin McDonald of No. 15 Elm street, Brockton, was held in $500 by Commissioner Jenney in Federal Court today when prohibition officers testified they caught him bootlegging at the Brockton Fair. Agent Bowditch said McDonald, with John Flinn and George White of Hartford, Ct., sold him a half pint of whiskey for $3. Flinn and White are in Brockton jail.

CHEER UP! TAXPAYERS LIVE LONGER, PROVIDENCE EXPERT FINDS

HIGH LIFE DOESN'T KILL

Dr. Chapin Finds Families That Pay Income Taxes Live Twice as Long

By GRACE DESCHAMPS.

Cheer up!

That third instalment on your income tax is a brick wall between you and the undertaker—

Your digestion, your nerves and your heart have two-to-one odds over the fellow who pays no taxes.

It's a fact.

Dr. Charles V. Chapin, superintendent of health of Providence, has followed out the life-line of the taxpayer and the non-taxpayer, and has concluded that your tax payment is the first step toward a ripe old age.

Typhoid, smallpox, pulmonary tuberculosis, heart disease, digestive diseases and affections of the nervous system circled around the population of Providence and picked off the non-taxpayer in the ratio of almost two to one.

HIGH LIFE DOESN'T KILL.

Dr. Chapin, who is a fellow of the American Public Health Association, has released the results of his exhaustive search among statistics for the benefit of health departments of other cities.

"Our investigation," says Dr. Chapin, "also shows the discrepancy between the facts and the modern viewpoint that the degenerative diseases of advancing years are due to high living, eating too much protein, the nervous strain of modern business, etc.

"If this were true, these diseases would be much more common among the rich than the poor. Study of the death rate of taxpayers and non-taxpayers from 1865, a year in which the census refused and the tax lists are both complete, show that the mortality rate has been twice as great among non-taxpayers than it has among taxpayers."

The names of income taxpayers, in 1865, numbering more than 2,000, were compared with the census returns and a card made for each family, showing the age, sex and occupation of each member. These were divided into groups and these groups were subtracted from corresponding age groups of the non-taxpaying population.

TAXPAYER DEATHS FEW.

The children of tax-paying parents, from five to nine years, made up the only group which succumbed more to disease than the children of the poor of the same age.

Among the 201 deaths of infants in 1865, only seventeen deaths occurred in the families of taxpayers.

Going up the age scale, mortality rate per 100,000 population was fixed with the various diseases indicated, and in each instance the families earning enough to pay income taxes enjoyed an immunity twice as great as their less prosperous townsmen.

"An income tax seems to be a far better means of segregating persons of good economic status than geographical distribution," says Dr. Chapin.

"I began the study of medicine under a preceptor in Providence in 1876, and was acquainted with many of the older practitioners, so that the tabulation is fairly correct within the limits of medical knowledge of the times.

RESULTS IMPORTANT.

"The figures for 'other general diseases,' which embraced the deaths from diseases not known, were small but is is probably significant that deaths from alcoholism were mostly among the non-taxpayers."

Dr. Chapin considers the results of the investigation important, if it follows that a study of the habits and inclinations of the more prosperous middle-class will throw light upon their apparent tendency to longevity.

SHAM BATTLE AND PARADE FOR VETS

Mark Opening of Military Order Convention in the Back Bay

With all the schoolhouses and public buildings appropriately decorated by order of Mayor Curley, the fourth annual convention of the Military Order of the World War swung into action today.

Convention headquarters for the three days of the convention was at the Copley Plaza, where more than 200 delegates from all parts of the country registered.

All of the 1,600 members of the Bacon chapter of the order were called on to take part in the entertainment of the guests, which will include the usual visits to historic points.

The feature of today's program was a military parade and patriot and a sham battle in the Fenway playground near the Art Museum.

The parade formed on Commonwealth avenue near Copley square at noon and included, besides the delegates, two or three regiments of regular army troops and marines from the Navy Yard, as well as a large number of visiting officials.

The parade was reviewed by Gov. Cox and his Council, Mayor Curley, Major-General Andrew W. Brewster, commanding the First Corps Area; Rear Admiral L. R. de Steiguer, commanding the First Naval District, and Colonel Frederick A. Washburn, commanding the Boston chapter of the order.

SOLDIER'S LEG IS SAVED BY LEATHER HEEL OF SHOE

A leather heel saved the right leg of Corporal John F. Willis, aged 31, of the 18th Infantry at the Army base when an army truck on which he was riding capsized just north of the old Federal street bridge on Dorchester avenue.

The heel supported the truck and two and one-half tons of weight and prevented it from crushing his leg while rescuers rushed to jack up the truck and prevent it slipping on him.

PAROLE MOVE FOR BOY JUST SENTENCED

Although he was under sentence to serve from five to seven years in State Prison, Louis Colombo of Waltham is still inmate of Concord Reformatory today.

The transfer, just effected, was the first step toward the parole of the twenty-year-old unfortunate, whose fate has excited general sympathy.

Sanford Bates, Commissioner of Corrections, ordered the removal of young Colombo, and thereby disclosed that current rumors that he had been transferred previously were premature.

Colombo pleaded guilty in the Superior Criminal Court at East Cambridge early in September to a charge of snatching a handbag containing $90 from Beatrice White at Waltham.

"We've got to teach these foreigners that there is a God in Israel," said Judge Richard W. Irwin, Jr., passing sentence.

Several hours later Assistant District Attorney Bushnell appeared in court and asked the judge that the sentence be lightened, saying he believed it was too severe.

He pointed out that the boy was only twenty, had no attorney or friends in court, and no previous record. Most of the money stolen was recovered.

"I felt it my duty to bring this matter to your attention," said Mr. Bushnell.

"I felt it my duty to impose the sentence that I did," said the judge. "The sentence stands."

Mr. Bushnell said at the time he would not forget Colombo, and would seek a parole as soon as it was practicable.

POLICEMAN FINED FOR SHOOTING BROTHER COP

Lawrence, Oct. 2 (I.N.S.)—Special Police Officer Timothy Lynch pleaded guilty to charges of assault with a dangerous weapon on Patrolman Owen Conway of Lowell when arraigned in Superior Criminal Court today. Officer Lynch was fined $75. The shooting occurred at the home of Officer Lynch on June 26.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TOURNAMENT OPENS

Dayton, O., Oct. 2.—Exploding aerial bombs, released by planes soaring high above Wilbur Wright Field told today of the opening of the international air races. Twenty-one years ago a little group of shivering spectators watched Wilbur and Orville Wright fly for the first time a heavier-than-air machine. Orville Wright was an official at the races today.

FATHER AND SON HURT IN AUTO COLLISION

A father and son, both employes of the Charlestown Navy Yard, were injured today when the automobile in which they were riding was in collision with another machine outside the Navy Yard gate near the Chelsea bridge. Alfred M. Wills, a machinist, and his son George, a chief metal worker, were badly shaken up. The father was later removed to the Haymarket Square Relief Station.

EXCEPTIONS FOR SACCO, VANZETTI ARE FILED

Counsel Act in Fight to Save Men, Following Denial of New Trial

Counsel for Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, convicted South Braintree payroll murderers, took today their first step toward an appeal to the Supreme Court for a new trial when they filed a bill of exceptions.

This action follows the denial by Judge Thayer in the Superior Court at Dedham of motions for a new trial.

Bartolomeo Vanzetti — Nicola Sacco

The exceptions, taking up 2,200 pages and seven volumes, very nearly cover every move by the prosecution during the trial of the two men for the murder of Paymaster Frank Parmenter and his guard in 1920.

PROTEST ON JURY.

The first exception taken was on the method employed to secure more talesmen when the first 150 were exhausted without obtaining a panel. On instruction from Judge Thayer, the sheriff picked up men from the street, offices and meetings and these were used to fill out the jury.

Many of the exceptions are based on the charge that the prosecution attempted to prejudice the jury by showing that Vanzetti was a radical.

On one occasion Judge Thayer allowed the prosecution to question Sacco on the number of students in Harvard College, the number graduated, etc., which the defense maintained, calculated to prejudice the jury.

These exceptions will be passed upon by Judge Thayer, when they will go to the Supreme Court along with the appeal from Judge Thayer's denial of the five motions for a new trial.

This appeal will not be formally entered until Attorneys Fred Moore and Jeremiah J. McAnarney of Quincy have thoroughly studied Judge Thayer's decision.

REPORT FUNDS LOW.

The Sacco-Vanzetti Defense Committee, with headquarters at No. 256 Hanover street, North End, is apparently suffering from lack of funds.

According to John McHale, superintendent of the building, the committee owes for two months' rent, and it is only rarely that any member is in the office.

During the height of the trial, he said, contributions poured in from all over the world, but recently there has been little activity. Many contributors came in rags.

There is about $3,000 worth of literature in the room.

Mrs. Rose Sacco, brave wife of Nicola Sacco, attended court sympathy by her steadfast loyalty to her husband. She took up her residence with her children in Dedham and was a constant attendant at the trial.

Mrs. Sacco insists on her husband's innocence and will keep up her fight to free him.

ANN LUTHER PENNILESS; CAN'T PAY 35-CENT LOAN

New York, Oct. 2.—Ann Luther reported to be "flat broke" has been sued by her own lawyer for a 35-cent loan, and is without the price of train fare to come here from Hollywood to defend herself in a correspondent's suit.

The revelation came in Supreme

Evelyn Nesbit — Ann Luther

Court, when Henry A. Uterhart, appearing for her, said she couldn't appear to answer Evelyn Nesbit's charges of stealing the love of Jack Clifford, dancer, unless $50 was paid the freight.

Ann's $100,000 breach of contract suit against Jack White, wealthy miner, was just tossed out of court in Los Angeles, and she couldn't even pay court costs.

HAS TWO WIVES—AND A DOUBT ABOUT EACH

A wife too many got James M. Cardella, 35, into Municipal Court today. Cardella lives on Clarendon street sometimes, and the rest of the time in the North End. Some years ago he married Mrs. Stella Murphy, a divorcee. Later it was pointed out to him that her divorce from a previous husband was not absolute. Believing himself single again, Cardella said, he married Mary Derianato in New York. The case was continued two weeks.

Girl Forgets to Take Off Her Tell-Tale Wedding Ring

When Miss Winifred Tierney of Lynn forgot to remove a gold wedding ring from her finger, upon her return from a month's vacation in Canada, her associates at a local shoe factory, where she is employed as forelady, learned of her secret marriage to George W. Guptill, well-known Lynn druggist. The couple were married at the parsonage of St. Mary's Church, Lynn, July 25, by the Rev. Myles J. McSweeney.

NEW CLAIMANT FOR LOTTA'S WEALTH

A woman living in Tulsa, Okla., today entered the lists as a claimant of part of the $4,000,000 estate that the late Lotta Crabtree, retired comedienne, willed to charity.

Woodson Norvell of Tulsa, attorney for the latest entrant, says she is Miss Crabtree's half sister.

Norvell will disclose her present identity according to advices from Oklahoma, but revealed that before her marriage she was known as Ida Crabtree.

The half sister and her lawyer will leave for Boston early next week to join in the general attack on the will. It is Norvell's contention that when the aged actress made it she was not capable of disposing of her estate intelligently and had forgotten the existence of her half sister.

Bernard Gould of New York already is in Boston to look out for the interest of five cousins of the actress. He was to enter an appearance in the Suffolk Probate Court today, to serve legal notice that a claim is made upon the estate. He said the relatives he represented were not opposed to the future of the charities getting the bulk of the estate.

TRAFFIC LAWMAKERS SEE JUDGE DOWD IN ACTION

All the members of the joint legislative committee on the regulation of motor vehicle traffic visited municipal court today and observed Judge Thomas A. Dowd in action. Senator John W. Ellis and Representative James Bentley of the committee sat with him on the bench.

The regular traffic cases were quickly disposed of, all but five. Five defendants arrived late, and careless.

"Before I fine you five for traffic violations I am going to fine you $5 each for contempt of court. Be on time," said the judge.

Those who fined them an additional $5 for their various offenses.

MacMILLAN WELCOMED BY FREEPORT CITIZENS

Freeport, Me., Oct. 2.—Welcomed with a burst of band music, the booming of red fire and singing by the children of the village schools, Donald B. MacMillan, Arctic explorer, was given a rousing greeting by his townspeople, more than 400 being present.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by E. L. Porter, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, and Judge Robert E. Randall.

The explorer described in considerable detail the trip of the little schooner Bowdoin, its hardships and its pleasures.

SIXTEEN HOURS LATE IN GIVING NEWS OF ROBBERY

Being robbed of $80 by an armed bandit was a matter of such small importance to Richard Leighton, in charge of the Colonial filling station at Broadway and Eastern avenue, Chelsea, that he forgot to report the matter to the police until sixteen hours afterwards.

Leighton, who lives at No. 11 Franklin street, Saugus, told the police a young man about five feet eight inches tall, appeared in the filling station, flashed a revolver and bookletted the $80.

GEN. BUTLER AND MAYOR PATCH UP DIFFERENCES

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—Mayor W. Freeland Kendrick and General Smedley Butler, director of public safety, conferred today for the first time in more than three months and patched up their differences. "See the Mayor," acted the general when asked whether he would remain director for the full term of four years. General Butler showed the effects of his illness. He was so weak that he had to be assisted into his office.

SOMERVILLE CHILD PLUNGES FROM WINDOW

Thomas Durant, twenty-three months-old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Durant of No. 17 Austin street, Somerville, while alone in the bathroom of his home on the second floor, tumbled out the window to the back yard, a distance of eighteen feet, striking on his head on the concrete walk. Dr. Francis J. Fitzpatrick ordered the child removed to the Somerville Hospital for an X-ray examination.

BROCKTON HOST TO 85,000 ON BOSTON DAY

Planes From Airport Amuse the Crowd; Mayor Curley Pays a Hurried Visit

Brockton, Oct. 2.—"Boston Day" at the Brockton Fair drew 85,000 persons today to witness the long program of athletic sports, aerial acrobatics and the exhibition by Charlie Davis of Columbus, O., who throws the meanest horseshoe in the world.

Charlie is the champion horseshoe pitcher of the universe, and he has challenged all comers. Several confident players of the barnyard game in Brockton and nearby towns have taken up the challenge.

When not defending his title, Charlie Davis will give exhibitions of how easy it is to flick the ash off a man's cigarette with a well-tossed horseshoe, and other like stunts.

The New England airplane cross country race was cancelled definitely today after two postponements. No reason was given. The Mitchell Field planes took the air today and headed for home. Planes from the Boston airport amused the crowd by chasing huge "bubbles."

Mayor Curley paid a flying visit to the fair during the afternoon and made an informal address.

The feature of the afternoon was the twenty-first athletic carnival, taken part in by leading athletes of New England. The carnival was topped off with a ten-mile modified marathon.

Tomorrow is designated as Governor's Day.

Blank Slips Dropped in Fare Boxes in 25-Cent Rides

Springfield, Oct. 2.—A hitch occurred on the Springfield Street Railway Company operated today that the company is investigating the placing of blank pasteboard in the carfare boxes in place of the new tickets that sell for 25 cents.

It is reported that this substitution is widespread and that it is most prevalent during the evening rush hours, on lines running from the factory districts.

Car operators have been warned to guard against the practice by scrutinizing both sides of tickets.

SANDERSON IS GIVEN SUPREME COURT BERTH

Governor Cox today elevated Superior Court Justice George A. Sanderson to the Supreme Court bench and reappointed Michael H. Sullivan as chairman of the Boston Finance Commission.

Judge Sanderson fills the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Charles A. DeCourcy. He was appointed to the Superior Court bench in 1907 by the late Governor Curtis Guild, Jr.

This creates a vacancy in the Superior Court bench, which rumor says may be filled by Chief Justice Bolster of the Boston Municipal Court.

Sullivan's reappointment had been held over from June and it was rumored he was to retire from that position.

GIRLS DANCE IN SEMI-DARKNESS AT WELLESLEY

Forget Bedtime Story When Lights Go and Startle Them

It was 9:30 p. m. at Wellesley College, and the study hour was over for the evening.

Hard working girl students in Shafer and Pomeroy dormitories laid aside their books with a sigh, preparatory to enjoying their nightly relaxation, to wit—listening to a bedtime story.

Just then the lights went out and startled screams rose through the still night air.

Evidently the darkness had a deleterious effect, for bedtime stories were forgotten. Candles were produced and lighted, and by their flickering flames bridge games were started.

In other rooms where candles were at a premium, victrolas were turned on and the girls danced all the latest steps. In one room funny stories were told, and were received hilariously.

There was only one casualty. One girl was taking a bath, and lost no soap just as the lights went out. She discovered it unexpectedly because her feet and not down so readily that her evening was spoiled.

Taken by and large, a good time was had by all until the illumination was turned on again.

A. F. L. TO SHOW HOW TO SPLIT BALLOTS

Members Urged to Vote for Labor's Friends, Irrespective of Party

Washington, Oct. 2.—Instructions how to scratch their ballots in the coming election so as to vote for the La Follette-Wheeler electors and candidates for the House and Senate whose records are acceptable to the American Federation of Labor are to be given organized workers of the country, under a plan outlined today by Frank Morrison, vice-president of the federation and a member of its campaign committee.

Letters sent by Mr. Morrison to secretaries of all State Federations of Labor urge them to collect and disseminate information as to how "split" tickets may be voted.

"The American Federation of Labor," said Morrison, "is sending members of its affiliated unions the records of Senators and Congressmen who are candidates for re-election, calling upon them to vote for our friends and defeat our enemies, irrespective of party affiliations.

"Every effort should be put forth to advise and inform the workers to 'split' or 'scratch' their ballots when necessary in order to vote for all the candidates they desire to support."

The State secretaries were advised to circulate a letter explaining how the ballot should be marked.

MORE VOTES FOR 2 RIVALS THAN FOR COOLIDGE

President Now 41 Behind La Follette and Davis in American Poll

mediately ahead of him, and more than one seat in Congress, heretofore looked upon as safely Republican, may be considered to be in at least great danger.

Consider the figures for the eight days of the Boston American's careful canvass:

Total vote	5,175
Coolidge, Republican	2,585
Davis, Democrat	1,316
La Follette, Progressive	1,291

TROUBLE FOR GILLETT.

While this situation offers no threat whatever to President Coolidge's chances of taking the electoral vote of Massachusetts, it does suggest trouble for Speaker Gillett in his contest with United States Senator Walsh—renominated by the Democrats and endorsed by Senator Wheeler of the La Follette ticket—and it does intimate danger in "Republican" Congressional districts.

The first item in the table which accompanies this review represents a tour among the textile offices in Boston, together with a visit to Lincoln street and the United States Hotel. Coolidge three to one.

Of 67 pedestrians interviewed in the neighborhood of the Grove Hall cathaxne, more than half marked their ballots for the President.

VOTE IN LOWELL.

The vote in Lowell, which pulled up the Davis total so materially, represents a canvass in Central, Merrimack and Middle streets, talks with pedestrians, and visits to a number of eating-houses. Davis 82, La Follette 56, Coolidge 43. The G. O. P. appears to be in for a drubbing this year in the textile towns.

The vote in Harvard Square represents not only pedestrians, but a few students and several instructors.

The total number of ballots marked in the twenty-four-hour period was 515, as follows:

Coolidge	263
Davis	175
La Follette	137
Coolidge over Davis	88
Coolidge trails rivals by	109

DRASTIC ANTI-DRY PLANK IN JERSEY PLATFORM

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 2.—Amendment of the Volstead act and repeal of the State enforcement act, known as the Hobart law, are flatly declared in the temperance draft of the Democratic platform made public here today. The platform will be acted upon by the State convention when it reconvenes here next Tuesday. The proposition to repeal the Hobart act is the most extreme anti-dry doctrine yet broached by the Democratic party in New Jersey.

KLAN CONDEMNED BY COL. ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Theodore Roosevelt, accepting the Republican gubernatorial nomination, pledged himself to strive for a less expensive, better and cleaner State government; reaffirmed his opposition to any organization, "Whether it be the Ku Klux Klan or some other group," when it endeavors to create "false distinctions between American and American," and asserted that as Governor he would do everything in his power to secure legislation for enforcing the Volstead act.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody knows when you Darken Gray Hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

CHICKIE APRON IS A THING OF BEAUTY

Made of Thin, Pliable Rubber, They Are Fine for Woman of the House

Rally 'round, you bachelding husbands and such. You're about to learn how to get solid with the women of your individual horizons.

Shell want a "Chickie Tea Apron," one of the Boston American's serviceable confections that protect and save, yet at the same time enhance by their own beauty, the beauty of a gown.

We promised to describe these Chickie Aprons and we will. They are in two colors, a pretty light shade of red and an emerald shade.

They are of thin, light, very pliable rubber, fashioned in tea apron design, with a thin band of the same material. The green apron is edged with a ruffle of cream-shade rubber—you never see that in an ordinary rubber apron—and there is a cute ruffled rubber pocket.

The red apron has everything the green apron possesses and a cream shade of ruffle. This apron is all one beautiful shade of light red—wonderful for brunettes. The green, of course, is for blondes, titians and the like. This is a tip to you men.

Words, however, can hardly do justice to the Chickie Tea Apron. They must be seen to be appreciated—and once seen, they certainly will be appreciated.

Next week you may own one.

British Auto Men Start War on U. S. Cars

London, Oct. 2 (Universal Cable).—Cuts by British automobile concerns, ranging all the way to 20 p. c., were announced by leading manufacturers.

The object of the price-slashing is to squeeze out "cheap American cars."

Englishmen will now be able to buy a small two-seater with a good eight-horse power engine for as little as $350.

ARMED FORCE BURNS BARRACKS IN IRELAND

London, Oct. 2 (I.N.S.).—An armed band burned the barracks of the civic guard at Slaveen, Ireland, after driving out the guards, says a Central News dispatch from Dublin.

This is the first outbreak of violence reported from Ireland in many months.

IMOGENE IS BROKE; LOOKS FOR JOB

"Good Luck!" Says Tinney as Miss Wilson Goes Into Action

London, Oct. 2.—Imogene "Bubbles" Wilson is hunting a job in London—theatre, cabaret or film preferred.

Fortified with a "good luck, kid," from Frank Tinney, she started out making the rounds of theatrical offices—in spite of the fact that she passed the British immigration officials when she arrived last Saturday at Plymouth only by stating that she would be in England "a few days" before departing for the continent.

As many American actors know by bitter experience, it is impossible to enter England unless armed with a contract unless the entrant swears he has no intentions of appearing professionally.

The reason "Bubbles" is seeking work is two-fold. She is "crazy about Frank Tinney," according to an admission made to an acquaintance at the Metropole where she was present to watch Frank's debut as a cabaret performer at the Midnight Follies; and she is broke.

Although she admits she was getting $300 a week at a New England coast resort shortly before sailing, she had to pawn her fur coat in New York and get additional financial help from her sister.

Bobby Grey, Tinney's negro valet, also had to borrow money to buy a ticket, and neither of them had money enough while aboard the Columbus to pay for the many wireless messages both sent to Tinney. An obliging fellow voyager furnished the necessary sums.

When they landed in England, "Bubbles" and Bobby had between them less than $15.

In the meantime Tinney insists that he never cabled "Bubbles" to come and join him, but that he ignored a cable from his valet which in effect suggested that Tinney cable Imogene not to come.

Roxbury Burglary

Thieves broke open a rear window of the jewelry and novelty shop of Morris Karsh, No. 343 Centre street, Roxbury, and stole merchandise valued at $50.

STEAMER NOT DAMAGED IN HITTING BREAKWATER

A statment issued today by the Dollar S. S. Line gives the real story of the mishap to the S. S. President Polk in the harbor of Marseilles. She touched a breakwater as she was leaving and divers were sent down to inspect the bottom. A certificate of seaworthiness was immediately issued and she proceeded on her way to Boston, only a few hours late. She is expected here Monday afternoon. Early dispatches seemed to indicate that she was aground and in serious trouble.

GOVERNOR OF WYOMING IS DEAD AT CHEYENNE

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 2.—Governor W. B. Ross died early today. He underwent an operation for appendicitis at a hospital Wednesday. Physicians said last night that phlebitis, an inflammation of the veins, had set in three days ago.

The death of Ross makes necessary the election of a Governor at the general election next month. During the intervening period, under Wyoming law, the Secretary of State acts as Governor.

KEEP PRICE UP, BOARD TELLS TAXI MEN

Springfield, Oct. 2.—One way to save a street railway company from deficit is to compel taxicab men to put up their rates and keep them up.

That is the conviction of the city transportation board, which has just announced that no taxi will be allowed to operate here for a lower fare than the one agreed upon by representatives of the three largest taxicab companies of the city.

If the small independents try to operate more cheaply than the others, their licenses will be forfeited, according to Alderman Stuart, chairman of the board.

Representatives of the Yellow Cab Company, the Black and White Company and the Checker Cab Company conferred with the transportation board and virtually dictated the minimum rate which is to prevail.

The meeting was called as part of the city-wide campaign to protect the Springfield Street Railway Company from competition. If the cabmen had not agreed on a minimum rate, the board would have established one.

Stuart admitted that it was unusual for a public body to instruct owners of public conveyances not to carry customers too cheaply, but thought the board was within its rights. He said the situation demanded desperate remedies.

Everybody does not feel as Mr. Stuart feels, and District Attorney Wright has ordered an investigation. Assistant District Attorney Olason is making the inquiry.

Olason could not say today whether the agreement between the big cab owners and the transportation board was illegal, but admitted there was plenty of cause for investigation.

Cabmen operating under the agreement may be arrested and tried to make a test case, the transportation board possibly being summoned as co-defendant.

Wears Mourning

DOROTHY GRANDON

Maryland girl who was tarred and feathered, wears mourning in court for Mrs. Mary Shanks, who has pleaded guilty to indictment charging her with the alleged offence. Harry Leatherman one of the 20 men also on trial in case, puts all the blame for the attack on Mrs. Shanks.

NEW FEDERAL 'GAS' CASES HINTED

Washington, Oct. 2.—Attorney-General Stone indicated today that panies may result from the Department of Justice investigation which has been continuing since the filing of the suits against fifty-one companies in Chicago. He declined to discuss the nature of the evidence which department agents were said to have gathered.

The Attorney-General's remarks followed inquiries directing his attention to cuts in gasoline prices in the last few days. He said with reference to this that "crude stocks stored were sufficiently large that the prices should have been reduced before this."

CHARGES KLAN PLOT TO BURN HIS BARN

Waterbury, Ct., Oct. 2.—Roger S. Baldwin, of Woodbury, son of ex-Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, told local newspapermen today he believed an attempt to free his prize herd of cattle and burn his barns in Woodbury was made by members of the Ku Klux Klan of that town.

Baldwin found several strips of oil-soaked burlap alongside the barn, he said. One strip had been burned but had failed to ignite the barn.

"In my speeches for the La Follette-Wheeler ticket I have bitterly denounced the Klan and there are many klansmen in Woodbury," he said. "They resented my attack on the Klan and I have good reason to believe klansmen tried to destroy my barns."

Mr. Baldwin said he was trailed by two suspicious characters along a lonely Woodbury road one night earlier in the week and that he had to jump over a boarded fence to escape.

Former Boston Girl Prominent at Tuxedo Club Autumn Ball

By BETTY ALDIN.

TIME was when the debutantes waltzed and two-stepped to their heart's content at Boston's far-famed Assemblies.

Which was thrilling indeed for the carefully selected group of buds receiving the coveted invitations to this supremely important function.

But there was heartbreak aplenty among their less fortunate sister-debutantes.

Nowadays, no members of the "first year" contingent whatsoever are present at the Assemblies, which are really more of a ceremonial than a mere function, anyway.

Other cities, however, still have those functions which tend to make or mar the glory of a debutante's first year. "To be, or not to be—bidden," is the all-absorbing question.

BALTIMORE, for instance, has its famous Bachelor cotillons—several Boston buds usually attend these affairs each year—while for the Manhattan ball the event par excellence is annual Autumn ball taking place at the Tuxedo Club at Tuxedo Park.

This year the ball takes place October 25, and there are those who say that the affair will surpass any of previous years.

To jolly Mrs. Amory S. Carhart has been entrusted the task of seeing that the Old Tuxedo Club is brilliantly decorated for the occasion.

The decorations, by the way, play a not unimportant part in the affair. The gardeners of the private estates in the park take an immense amount of pride in furnishing and helping to arrange these decorations, which will consist largely of blazing Autumn foliage and flowers and numerous specics of pines.

Mrs. Carhart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Biles of Commonwealth avenue, whom she frequently visits. The Carharts divide their time between Gotham and Tuxedo Park, where they are much to the fore in the activities of the younger-married set. Mrs. Carhart is better known to her intimates as "Dolly," though Isadora is her given name.

MRS. AMORY S. CARHART

Formerly Miss Isadora Bliss of Boston, who is on the committee for the annual Autumn ball taking place October 25 at the Tuxedo Club.

A GREAT shock indeed was the tragically sudden death of Elliot C. Bacon of Boston and New York.

It was only a little over a week ago that the prominent Harvard '10 man was attending the polo games at Meadowsbrook. In fact, he and his wife, the former Hope Norman, had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Boston.

A group of Boston men, including Roger Amory, Sullivan Sargent, George Peabody Gardner, Jr., George West, John Chaplin and John Thayer—all members of the Harvard '10 class—went over to New York to be honorary pallbearers for the impressive funeral services held on Monday at Grace Church.

Later the body was placed on board the private car of J. Pierpont Morgan and taken to Boston. Burial services were held Tuesday morning at the grave in Walnut Hill Cemetery.

Those who accompanied the body to Boston besides Mrs. Bacon included his mother, Mrs. Robert Bacon, his brothers, Robert L. Bacon and Gaspar G. Bacon, and his sister, Mrs. George Whitney.

Society Notes

MRS. OSCAR IASIGI gave a dinner party the other evening at "Clovercroft," her Stockbridge Summer home, for Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bigelow of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ivine Croll will remain another week at "Sunnybank," their Manchester place, before returning to their town house on Beacon street.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell Robinson (Ruth Wyllys Taylor), who were recently married at Ipswich, will make their home in Glens Falls, N. Y. Mrs. Robinson is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward W. Robinson of Marlboro street and Ipswich.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward have closed "The Cloisters," their Newport home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haynes-Smith (Alice Maude Sturgis) are visiting the Misses Sturgis at Manchester-by-the-Sea, where marriage of Miss Sturgis to Mr. Haynes Smith took place in June.

Mrs. Henry Clay Frick and Miss Helen Frick will remain until late in November at "Eagle Rock," Pride's Crossing, before going to their Winter residence in New York.

Miss Elizabeth Thorndike of Boston and Windsor has been visiting with Miss Matilda C. Ellsworth at Bernardsville.

COOLIDGE PHONOFILM AT FENWAY NEXT WEEK

Campaigning by the De Forest phonofilm is the latest bit of activity indulged in by the three leading candidates for the Nation's highest honor and if you are interested in seeing your favorite candidate in action, and hear his voice, you will have that opportunity during the next few weeks at the Fenway theatre.

The first of the candidates to be presented in this fashion will be President Coolidge, whose phonofilm reproduction will form a part of next week's program. John W. Davis and Senator La Follette will follow.

At a private showing of the De Forest phonofilm at the Fenway yesterday all three candidates made their plea for votes. The De Forest phonofilm is a new departure in speaking movies and is accomplished without the aid of talking machine or separate mechanical devices. The sound waves of the voice are recorded at the same time the picture is taken and perfect synchronization is achieved.

WINSTON IS CHOSEN ELKS DRILL MASTER

The Boston Lodge of Elks is to have a drill team, and Major James F. Winston, who was so successful with lodge members in the big parade last July, will be drill master. This was decided at a meeting of the lodge when the drill demonstration and contest at Braves Field during (Photo by Cypenheim) Elk's Week was remembered.

Maj. J. F. Winston

Major Winston has been highly successful as drillmaster, and is candidate for the position of adjutant of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

MUSES ALOUD IN COURT, GETS 3 MONTHS

Jacob Bruno mused himself into a three months' sentence in the House of Correction today, just when Judge Barnes in East Boston court was going to give him a fine chance to pay his wife some money every week.

Bruno, who is thirty-three years old and lives at No. 166 Sumner street, has failed to support his wife in the eight years they have been married, she told the court. Recently he declined, just as cheerfully, to support their child.

The defendant was about to be placed on probation on provision that he would come across each week, when he fell into a musing mood.

"Why should I support my wife and child," he reflected aloud. "I have all I can do to look out for myself without being bothered by her. She's been supporting herself for a long time, also the child. Let her continue."

Then Judge Barnes mused aloud also, the sum total of his musing being three months for Bruno in the H. C.

Bruno musingly appealed.

$15,000 REWARD IN CAPE JEWEL THEFT OFFERED

Rewards totalling $15,000 have been offered for the recovery of the $100,000 worth of jewels stolen from the E. C. Crossett summer mansion on Cape Cod, and the capture of the thieves.

The Crossett home was entered during the storm of August 25, the thieves making a haul that brought a dozen detectives from the Pinkerton agency.

$1,000,000,000 CASH FOR U. S. WHEAT

Washington, Oct. 2.—The wheat crop this year will return to the American growers about one billion dollars in cash at country points, Managing Director Meyer of the War Finance Corporation told Secretary Mellon today.

Mr. Meyer declared also that railroad transportation was handling the crop in a manner "almost without precedent."

"In view of the unusually rapid flow of wheat to market," the memorandum said, "I have had an informal investigation made in the West of the adequacy of the machinery for handling the marketing of the crop.

"I am glad to be able to say that the reports are most optimistic and that, in fact, the railroad transportation seems to be adequate to the task and practically no substantial car shortages are reported.

"Railroad efficiency in moving the crop is almost without precedent. Adequate financial support is being provided all along the line. A remarkably satisfactory export demand is being taken care of by full and adequate supply of ocean tonnage to move the surplus to export markets with all possible promptness.

"It is a matter of great satisfaction that this year's great wheat crop, grown as it was on a ten per cent, smaller acreage than last year, is bringing the farmer a billion dollars cash at country points."

Hold Boy as Robber

Lawrence, Oct. 2 (I. N. S.).—Edward Frederick, fourteen, was arrested today charged with the robbery of $1,100 from the office of Snigorski & Nelser. Frederick, it is alleged, grabbed a box containing the money from the clerk.

MARION DAVIES in YOLANDA

Marion Davies gives the greatest performance of her career in Yolanda.

She even surpasses her memorable performance as Pat O'Day in "Little Old New York" and Mary Tudor in "When Knighthood Was in Flower." A sweet and demure Yolanda, she is also a vivid, magnetic figure that holds your interest tensely from first to last.

Yolanda is a thrilling panorama; its action holds you breathless, its characters fascinate you.

KLAN 'THREAT' TO DROWN CURLEY

He's Warned He'll Go to the Deepest Spot in Massachusetts Bay

Mayor Curley today received his first "real threat" from the K. K. K. It was in the form of a letter, mailed in Everett, and reads as follows:

"Watch your step. You have pressing invitation to find out deepest place in Massachusetts Bay with fifty pound round your neck. Perhaps you visit dog fish, long dive, then lay still.

"K. K. K."

The mayor refused to be startled by the letter and said that the fight against the klan in the State would be continued.

KNITTER CO. OFFICIAL'S INDICTMENT QUOSHED

The indictment against William C. Gray, secretary of the Tryon Knitter Company on charges of using the mails to defraud, was quashed today in Federal Court by Assistant United States Attorney Essex Abbott. The trial of the three officers, President Edward R. Tryon, Vice-President Henry P. Doherty and Fred G. Leary, continued. Sixteen witnesses testified for the defence that the knitter sold by the company had been successfully used by them. The indictments charged the officers were guilty of fraud in advertising money could be made at home by use of the knitter.

GOT THE RIGHT MAN; HAD THREE "SLINGS"

Three men, each with an arm in a sling, sauntered by Sergeant Neilan of Cambridge today on Washington street, Forest Hills. He had just been to the home of Arthur Brown at No. 2937 Washington street, and Mrs. Brown had said her husband had just gone out, but could be recognized by the fact that his left arm was in a sling. "Hello, Arthur," called the officer, and the man in the middle turned. A few minutes later Brown was in court to explain why he defaulted when he was ordered to appear on September 29 to answer a charge of non-payment of wages. The case went over to October 24.

BERGDOLL HERE GERMAN POLICE BELIEVE

Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany, Oct. 2 (A.P.)—Government officials here are inclined to believe that Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, wanted in the United States on the charge of being a draft dodger during the World War, has returned to America. The officials are basing their conclusions on Bergdoll's prolonged absence from Eberbach, where he has not been seen since early in April.

Bergdoll, who has been living in Germany since his sensational escape from the United States in May, 1920, was said to have left Eberbach on April 6 for a tour of Europe.

CHEWS FINGER OF GUNMAN IN FIGHT

Police of Greater Boston are searching for a bandit, the little finger of whose right hand is hanging on by shreds.

The finger was almost bitten off the bandit by Paul Guilbault, aged thirty-two, of No. 3 Lampson place, Cambridge, who was set upon by two robbers while returning home.

The men, apparently unarmed, sprang on Guilbault and overpowered him. They had an old potato sack which they pulled over the head of their victim, after which they knocked his legs from under him. One man sat on Guilbault's chest while the other ransacked his pockets.

Guilbault had left his bankroll at home and had less than a dollar in change in his pockets.

AMERICAN WOOLEN PUTS UP ITS WORSTED PRICES

The American Woolen Company today advanced the prices of all worsteds fro men's wear from 7½ to 27½ cents a yard, covering all the products of the fifteen mills. The products of the Shawsheen mill, one of the largest, is sold up for the entire season, it was stated, and they are withdrawn from the market. Woolen goods of six mills are also sold up. Women's wear lines were sold up and withdrawn last week. The increase in price and the steady demand indicates a cheerful outlook for the woolen market.

CHANCE TO BUY COSY HOME AT LITTLE COST

Leper Colony Buildings for Sale; if You Are Not Fussy They Are Perfectly Safe

Here is the chance of a lifetime to own your own home and escape the greedy clutches of the landlord.

Among a mass of buildings and equipment being offered for sale by the state on November 1 are four nice little cottages. You can have them practically at your own price.

That is, if you are not too fussy about their past history.

OLD LEPER COLONY.

The four little homes are located on Penikese Island, Massachusetts' abandoned leper colony. Except for the presence of a sole caretaker, the island has been deserted since the transfer of the "unclean" to the government's care six years ago.

What to do with the island problem was solved by the last legislature. It directed that it be used in the future as a sanctuary for birds.

Everything on the island has been fumigated and a clean bill of health is attached to each and every article on the state page.

MUST BE REMOVED.

Here are some of the buildings that will be knocked down to the highest bidder, all to be removed from the premises:

One main administration building with power station, one laundry building with machinery, one hospital and recreation building, four cottages, two pump houses, three barns, one greenhouse and several chicken sheds.

The property and buildings represent a total outlay of $130,000, of which $100,000 is in the buildings and equipment.

KLAN MEETING IN SCHOOL HALL CAUSES STIR

Gardiner, Me., Citizens Make Protest Against Proposed Use of Building

Gardiner, Me., Oct. 2.—The Ku Klux Klan has succeeded in obtaining the auditorium of the Gardiner High School for a Klan lecture and secret session Monday night. Many citizens of the town are considerably stirred over the meeting at which a representative from the national organization at Atlanta will speak.

Supt. L. W. Gerrish of the high school believes that no distinction should be made in regard to the Klan, as other organizations have been permitted to use the auditorium.

He says that the new high school building was made possible through contributions from the citizens of Gardiner, and supposedly persons of all creeds and races contributed to the fund.

The opposition claims that, if the high school auditorium is used for the Klan meeting, it will be the first public school in the State to open its doors to the hooded order.

It is understood that the Palmer Noyes house on Brunswick ave. has been purchased as headquarters for the Ku Klux Klan. The lease on the hall which the organization now occupies expires this month.

PASTOR'S HONEYMOON "MADE A FOURSOME"

PRINCIPALS IN DOUBLE WEDDING

At bottom, the Rev. L. P. Causey, 70-year-old retired minister, and his bride and at top Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Zeimer. Mrs. Zeimer is stepdaughter of the present Mrs. Causey.

CHILDREN SCALDED BY BOILING WATER

Lorraine Sullivan, 3, and her 14-months-old sister Catherine, are on the danger list at the New England Hospital for Women and Children.

The children, while playing in the kitchen of their home at No. 6 Doans ct., Jamaica Plain, pulled a tube attached to a gas plate, causing a kettle of boiling water to overturn. Both children were badly scalded.

MINISTER WEDS, TIES KNOT FOR KIN OF WIFE

A honeymoon "foursome" of two couples who were enmeshed in a tangle of relationship following weddings in Lynn got away to a blissful start from the North Station.

The Rev. and Mrs. Levin P. Causey, both well beyond the three-score-and-ten mark, and the more youthful Frederick Zeimers were the two couples given a rousing send-off by a score of friends.

Thirty years ago the Rev. Mr. Causey, now retired, officiated at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Thomas. Mrs. Thomas's husband died years ago. So did Mr. Causey's first wife. So Mr. Causey and Mrs. Thomas were married at Lakeside Church, Lynn, by the Rev. Stephen L. Callendar.

Then the elderly bridegroom donned his surplice and performed the ceremony which united Miss Avis Thomas, his new wife's step-daughter, and Frederick Zeimer of New York.

Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

JOINT-EASE

New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases

Yes; it's true—the world progresses.

All you have to do nowadays to limber up that stiff, rusty knee joint is to squeeze a half-inch of outside working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspapers and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to leap when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease they call this wonder working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling, Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, penetrating prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

All druggists have a big supply of it and everywhere report a big demand.

Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—quick.

Every rheumatic sufferer ought to send today for free book, "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism" (just out). Address H. F. Ellenwood, Box 900, Hallowell, Maine.

AMERICAN GIRL TIRES OF HER ROYAL HUBBY

Beauty Who Wed Decendent of Scottish Kings Seeks Freedom Through Courts

By ROBERT J. PREW

London, Oct. 2 (Universal Cable).—The romance of the beautiful American war bride of a Scottish Baronet claiming direct descent from the ancient kings of Scotland is likely to end in the divorce court here.

Lady George Alexander Drummond Dunbar, formerly Miss Sophie Kennedy, only daughter of James Bonson Kennedy, of New York, filed a petition for judicial separation against her husband, an officer in the Black Watch, whom she married in May, 1916. The wedding was at St. James Church, Sussex Gardens, Hyde Park.

The case is being defended and will likely come before the courts within the next few weeks.

Sir George, who is the eighth baronet, is a lineal descendant of the fifth Earl of Moray who married the daughter of Robert, the Second, King of Scotland.

BOBBIE AND HIS PA

By Wm. F. Kirk

I GOT a letter from my uncle Wallace this A. M., and Ma to Pa and me, he certingly loves the Ma and Me.

That's good, said Pa. I hoop he stays there, said Pa.

How can I to hate that reemark? said Ma kind of quick.

Why, like I said it, said Pa. What is rong with me saying that? said Pa. If he likes the West I hoop he stays ware he is hapie, said Pa. What is rong with me saying that? said Pa.

Nothing I supposse, said Ma, but I am always a little sensitive about my relations when he when I are around, said Ma. You have throwed very few jokeys at my side of the family during all the years of our married life, said Ma.

Pa laffed. Wife, he sed, ever since we were married I have wondered how such a bully, hearty & charming woman as what you are, horred, sed Pa, cud ever have enny relashens as dum & thick & common & sort of yaks relashens are.

You shud not judge silvers, and Ma. It is not rite.

I supposse not, sed Pa, but all my life I have had a hard time to see how I cud have such dumm relashens as Rubes, sed Pa.

But my relashens are not Rubes, said Ma, indignent.

Rosie Rubber, sed Pa, dumm goes, sed Pa.

I do not know whether I shud laff or feel insulted, said Ma.

I supposse I shud laff, sed Ma, after all. Its its its, sed Ma, too ridiculus to be insulting.

But you are so dumm, sed Pa, sed Pa, I simply do not understand how you cud have such dumm relashens, sed Pa.

Well, I supposse they must seem dumm compared with me, sed Ma. I had not thot of it in that line. Yes, it is horrible, decared, she sed to Pa, that seven fairly brite people must seem dumm to you. I had not thot of it in that line, sed Ma.

I see, sed Pa, sense for once we have found sumthing on which we agree. I am not a hiteh boy but I did not see how he cud get Ma & Annie to feel happy with him & I am glad I did not grow up & get married & will not to my own sister, but I must say, on this occasion, that he is a pritty good sheered with you and aint looking for trubel.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

Dr. F. X. Mahoney
Boston Health Commissioner

Dr. Mahoney

WITH the opening of school and the recurrence of juvenile ills, mothers are again confronting with the family doctor and doing up the old-time remedies for stomach aches, skin rashes, sore throats and colds.

In many instances the minor ills of childhood succumb to common sense and home treatment that any intelligent layman might give. However, a chronic reliance upon home diagnosis has more than once resulted in the death of a child from diphtheria or an unsuspected meningitis, when a "rash" and a "sore throat" were hastily treated.

Restless sleep, constipation, or loss of weight may not simply mean that a child is cutting a tooth. In spite of the advice of neighbors, or the unquestioned experiences of a grandmother.

The "stomach ache" may be necessary to any one of a goodly array of sicknesses. More than one case of appendicitis has come to my notice, the life of a child because the abdominal pain attendant upon it was treated as "indigestion."

Pin Rash

A skin rash may be due to some poisonous condition which is not contagious in character but a skilled physician often finds it very difficult to differentiate between scarlet fever and a non-contagious rash.

The "measles rash" may be scarlet fever, in spite of the comforting conclusion of your next door neighbor.

As a rule, the never-failing panacea is a dose of physic. Many mothers doubt. They begin with castor oil and within three or four hours have run the gamut of time-worn cathartics.

Calomel as a favorite starting point in the home treatment of disease, its prestige, apparently, is based only on the early technique of the old-time family doctor who ordered a dose of calomel and then gave up in despair.

Recent observations have shown that calomel is far from the best purgative to use.

Overpurgation is distinctly harmful and is often followed by painful constipation, so that the complete calomel exhibition so that the physician cannot get a true picture of his case.

Sore Throats

In sore throats, the first right step should be a clear view of the child's throat. Painting or swabbing with iodine, silver nitrate or Dobell's solution, when there is no proof of the suspicion that the throat is affected only adds to the trouble.

Relief from heat and surest means of making a diagnosis between diphtheria and tonsilitis is the taking of a culture from the throat. This procedure consists of touching the affected portion of the throat with a sterile piece of cotton on a wooden stick and smearing it on a tiny bit of test tube containing blood serum, a medium necessary for the growth of diphtheria bacilli.

In twenty-four hours, if diphtheria is present, the diphtheria bacilli will show under the microscope.

Because the use of opium-containing drugs, it was not intended to limit a child in a serious illness, or by an overdose of common medicine. The danger is not so great, but caution should be used in giving any child a patent medicine.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Ever since I had pneumonia, I have not been feeling as well as I should. Would you kindly tell me what to eat to keep healthy?

F. A. K.

Norfolk Downs.

You should eat plenty of good, fresh, wholesome food. Drink milk, eat vegetables, and understand amount of exercise and get plenty of sleep and rest. Also be sensible in the matter of clothing and see that your family physician or a nurse gives suitable advice regarding what is holding you back.

I am troubled with tonsilitis all Winter. Please tell me what will help me. Please tell me what will help me.

There may be some trouble with your throat. I would advise you to go to the throat clinic at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary, Fenway, or the Boston City Hospital and have your throat examined and treated thoroughly.

FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Wall Street is at once the most honest and the most dishonest spot in America.

More business is transacted purely on honor, without any written agreement, in Wall Street than anywhere else in the land and no once a year is a word heard about any Wall Street man repudiating his word or his word which closed a deal.

At the same time more schemes for fleecing the public are hatched and operated from Wall Street than in all the rest of New York, Chicago and half a dozen other cities put together. The explanation is that there is a Wall Street and a Wall Street.

There is the Wall Street composed of reputable banks and bankers firms, members of the New York Stock Exchange, high-grade investment firms, trustworthy institutions of the Cotton Exchange, Produce Exchange and so forth. That is the real Wall Street.

* * *

Under the cloak of this honest and honorable Wall Street, there has sprung up an army of scheming and fakers of every conceivable kind. Their sole aim is to fleece money from the public. And, unfortunately, they reap lamentably rich harvests.

* * *

The New York Stock Exchange is often blamed for misdeeds for which it is no more responsible than Ajax or I. The percentage of honesty among its members is as high as that among any other group or class of business men.

* * *

Even so, recent events demonstrate the need for still stricter vigilance on the part of those governing the New York Stock Exchange. Under the presidency of Seymour L. Cromwell, marked progress was made towards safeguarding the public against risk and loss in dealing with members of the exchange. Mr. Cromwell's successor, E. H. H. Simmons, is also a man of the highest type, zealous in safeguarding the institution's good name, alert, progressive, responsive to public opinion.

* * *

By requiring every stock exchange firm to answer periodically a comprehensive questionnaire concerning its financial condition and its operations, it was hoped that investors and others doing business with exchange members would be fully protected. This reform was counted upon to reveal to the governors of the exchange any weakness developed by members and enable the authorities to institute corrective measures or, if these were impossible, for liquidation before customers were in danger of suffering serious losses.

NEW ENGLAND MILLS RAISE OUTPUT

By FRANK H. MELOON, Financial Editor.

Better days appear in hand for the New England cotton textile manufacturing industry after a long year of increasing curtailment.

With both the new cotton crop coming closer and the passing at the end of June of the 5-cent premium on spot cotton over future delivery, conditions seem to improve now.

The extent of the betterment to come is still but in its seed and bound to be obscure. There are few mill centers which are not running a little more machinery than a month ago.

Fall River, Lowell's cotton textile rival, is averaging between 60 per cent. and 65 per cent. operations, a gain in a two week's improvement over last midsummer low point.

To New Bedford seems the balloon of optimism. Reports received in most markets indicate that 5 mills in that city will operate 80 per cent. or more of capacity in September, and the No. 3 mill 95 per cent. both reportedly double the recent output. The Ruthaven is up to 50 per cent. and the Wamsutta from 65 per cent. to 75 per cent. The New Bedford mill payroll records an improvement of about 20 per cent. compared with the low point early in July. Last week the gain was 5 per cent. over the previous week.

In the Nashua the Nashua cottons is cheerfully monotonous capacity production. Lowell is outputting around 55 per cent. production, with quite such as the Hamilton and Appleton at about that figure and the Tremont & Suffolk at 40 per cent. Manchester is quite busy at Lawrence the Pacific Mills are running between 70 and 75 per cent., a 5 per cent. increase in the past month. Both the Arlington Mills and the Everett is running, the former almost 90 per cent. against an average through the Summer some 20 per cent. lower.

Maine mills tell the same story of slight improvement with the York at 50 per cent., the Bates, 70 per cent., Edwards, 60 per cent., Hallowell 50 per cent., and Androscoggin at approximately half production.

Fall River print cloth and coarse goods mills show a minimum gain. The Fall River output is about 30 per cent. of the maximum, a fairly appreciable improvement. The latest spurt in Fall River also is in fine goods plants like the Davis, Parker, Pilgrim and King Philip.

Under the circumstances of the 10 per cent. wage cut announced as directly increasing production although the New Hampshire property is still running on a 54-hour basis. Shoeburys in the Granite State the Nashua Manufacturing Co. is experiencing better business and is up to 70 per cent. The Jackson Co. is operating with an average of about half that figure in recent months.

CHASE NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

Further information in regard to this issue is given in a letter of Mr. L. K. Liggett, President of the United Drug Company, summarized as follows. A copy of this may be had on request.

HISTORY AND BUSINESS: The business was originated in 1902 by forty retail druggists to manufacture and distribute under controlled trademarks, medicinal preparations and other articles usually sold in drug stores. They named their stores "The Rexall Stores." The first year's sales were $63,000. The Company has grown steadily and rapidly. The present corporation was formed in 1916, by a consolidation of the old United Drug Company and the Riker-Hegeman Company. It has now approximately 8000 stockholder agents (The Rexall Stores) in the United States, and it owns, through a subsidiary, 285 Liggett Drug Stores, situated in some of the best locations in the metropolises of the country. The combined sales for the year to date have been running at the rate of $70,000,000. for the year. It manufactures in Boston, St. Louis, New Haven, Long Island City, Highland, N. Y., and Worcester, Mass.

PURPOSE OF THE ISSUE: This issue, together with cash in the Company's treasury, will be used to take up $10,681,000. of the Company's Convertible Twenty-Year 8% Gold Bonds due June 15, 1941, which have been called for payment on December 15, 1924, at par plus a premium of 15%.

EARNINGS: Since the Company's incorporation in 1916 it has shown consistent and with the exception of the two years, 1921 and 1922, increasing net earnings over each preceding year. In 1921, the poorest year in its history, the Company earned $3,300,314.71. or more than four times the amount of interest required of this issue. Its earnings for the year 1923 were $5,405,124.57., or over seven times the interest required on these bonds, and will be exceeded in this year by approximately 10%.

SINKING FUND: The Company shall annually pay to Chase National Bank, New York, as Trustee, under indenture securing the bonds, $125,000. The Trustee shall apply such money paid to it for the purchase in the open market of bonds at or below par. Any moneys not so used shall be invested by the Trustee, with the approval of the Directors of the Company, in investments legal for savings banks in Massachusetts and New York until such time as bonds can be purchased at or below par; but if at any time the unused Sinking Fund in the hands of the Trustee shall amount to $375,000., the obligation of the Drug Company to make annual payments into the Sinking Fund shall cease until the amount of the Sinking Fund in the hands of the Trustee has been used for the purchase of bonds at or below par.

SECURITY: These bonds will be a direct obligation of the United Drug Company, and together with the $2,184,000. 5½-Year Notes maturing June 15, 1926, will constitute the sole funded debt of the Company and its subsidiaries, with the exception of certain real estate mortgages aggregating $1,029,840. The indenture under which the bonds will be issued will provide that:

1. So long as any bonds of this issue are outstanding none of the assets of the United Drug Company, or of its subsidiaries (other than the real estate now mortgaged, as above stated) shall be mortgaged or pledged unless the present issue of bonds is equally secured with the other obligations covered by such mortgage or pledge; provided that the Company and its subsidiaries shall have the right to purchase additional property, subject to existing mortgages or may mortgage or pledge any property hereafter acquired other than its quick assets.
2. The Company agrees that the ratio of quick assets to quick liabilities as described in the indenture (and including the present issue of bonds and the 5½-Year Notes) of the Company and its subsidiaries shall be maintained at at least 125%. In case such ratio is not maintained no cash dividends shall be paid on the Common Stock of the Company until it is restored.

Application will be made to list these bonds on the New York and Boston Stock Exchanges.

We recommend these bonds for investment.

Price 99¾ and accrued interest, to yield 6.04%

Subject to the approval of all details by counsel, Messrs. Gaston, Snow, Saltonstall & Hunt of Boston, and when, as and if received by us.

It is expected that interim receipts exchangeable for definitive bonds, when prepared, will be ready for delivery on or before October 15th.

INSTITUTIONS BUYING HIGH-GRADE ISSUES

Continued buying of high-grade investments by institutions is reflected in the firmness of Liberty bonds and gilt-edged corporation issues, their large surpluses of money apparently compelling bond purchases to employ their funds. This also was said to explain the number of issues banking houses were placing privately. The influence of the small investor, while a factor, is diminished by the scarcity of offerings of high-yield bonds.

FAILURES IN SEPTEMBER ARE FEWEST SINCE 1920

Bradstreet's reports 1,676 business failures for September, smallest monthly figure since October, 1920. Liabilities aggregated $28,951,487, a decrease of 34 per cent. compared with August liabilities. Assets of firms embarrassed totaled $14,056,159.

For nine months ended September 30 there were 14,334 failures with liabilities of $360,844,745 and assets of $246,169,949.

Reactionary Western Judges Making Votes for La Follette

It is no wonder that in California there is a popular sentiment for "recalling" the four California Supreme Court judges who outvoted three of their colleagues and rendered a decision barring La Follette electors from the printed ballot as independent nominee.

One of the great issues of this campaign is whether the people can have the kind of laws they want or whether they can only have the kind of laws that a set of reactionary judges want.

There can be no better illustration of this issue than the present one.

The people of California, acting through their elected State legislature, passed a law in which they made it easy for independent, non-partisan candidates to run for office. This is the way the law reads: (SECTION 1188 of the Political Code)

"A candidate FOR ANY PUBLIC OFFICE for which no non-partisan candidate has been nominated at any primary election MAY BE NOMINATED SUBSEQUENT TO THIS PRIMARY ELECTION, or in lieu of any primary election, in the manner following:

"A nomination paper containing the name of the candidate to be nominated, with other information required to be given in the nomination papers, shall be signed by the electors residing within the district or political subdivision for which the candidate is to be presented, equal in number to at least one per cent. of the entire vote cast at the last preceding general election."

Nothing could be clearer.

Acting in accordance with this law, the La Follette managers secured the signatures of far more than the necessary one per cent. of California voters. They found 50,000 California citizens who signed their names thirteen times in order to qualify thirteen La Follette electors to have their names printed on the ballot as the Independent Presidential Ticket.

The unprecedented size of this petition was the best possible evidence that a large body of Californians desired the opportunity to vote for La Follette as an independent by marking a cross in the square at the top of the independent Republican ticket. Moreover, the California statute specifically provides that these election laws, in case of doubt, are to be liberally construed on behalf of "the real will of the electors." Now let us observe how the "real will of electors" was not aided but thwarted in the unjudicial decision.

The opinion of the four majority judges, written by Chief Justice Myers, and concurred in by Justices Richards, Shenk and Woste, contends, first of all, that Presidential electors are not "candidates for any public office," in the sense of section 1188. In other words, these four judges set up the strange contention that the men who are elected by the people to perform the most solemn duty under our constitution—choosing the President of the United States—are not elected to a "public office."

These electors not being "candidates for any public office" in the majority opinion of the court, do not fall in the class of candidates who can be put on the printed ballot by petition. These learned judges proclaim that:

"The plainly indicated legislative policy is that candidates for Presidential electors shall be nominated only at a State convention of a party or political organization at which a party platform shall be formulated, candidates for President and Vice-President endorsed and a group of electors selected who shall be identified as representing the policies expressed in such platform and as committed to the candidacies so endorsed."

The requirements of these four California Supreme Court judges would have been fully met if three or four ward politicians had met in some back room over an abandoned saloon, and, calling themselves a political organization, had solemnly named La Follette and Wheeler as independent candidates, and had designated thirteen electors to vote for them.

The requirement of these four judges are not met when 50,000 California voters present 650,000 signatures to a petition nominating the La Follette electors in accordance with the expressed provision of the statute.

But the learned judge continues, he is not "limiting unjustifiably the right of suffrage" of any class of citizens. The chief justice says that his decision:

"Operates to limit, not the right of suffrage, but the privilege accorded the candidates of having their names printed upon the ballot. If that privilege be not accorded to these petitioners, every qualified voter of the State would nevertheless have the right and the opportunity to cast his vote for them (La Follette electors) at the general election BY WRITING THEIR NAMES UPON THE BALLOT IN THE SPACES WHICH WILL BE PROVIDED THEREIN FOR THAT PURPOSE."

Could any reasoning be more specious and false? Voters for Coolidge and Davis can simply mark a single cross in a square above their presidential electors. Voters for La Follette are expected to remember the names of thirteen electors, write them properly, in their right order, spelling their names perfectly, under pain of having the ballot voided if an error is made. This is the "right and opportunity" which the Chief Justice considers ample for La Follette voters.

Fortunately, there is a way out. The Socialist party of California has endorsed the La Follette candidacy. California Progressives, instead of writing the names of the thirteen independent electors, can vote for La Follette by marking a cross above the Socialist Presidential electors.

But Progressives are not Socialists. To mark a Socialist ballot will cause qualms of conscience in some of them, and this fact must have been known to the four Supreme Court justices who forced them to this expedient.

The Americans love fair play. The act of these autocratic judges will effect exactly opposite to what they intended. Their decision will be worth a million votes to La Follette, not only in California, but throughout the Union. The four California judges are helping the Wisconsin Senator teach the people of the country the truth that our liberties are threatened by a judiciary which has assumed the right to twist, distort and nullify the laws which the people make.

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By HELEN ROWLAND

THE average Summer love affair is only two weeks long, including all the detours.

* * *

The chief objection to these hasty and thoughtless divorces is that they are nearly always followed by TWO hasty and thoughtless marriages.

Helen Rowland

There is no greater tonic for a man's nerve and character than a helpless and indolent wife—and no sater sedative for his ambition than a successful and efficient one.

* * *

It isn't what a woman says that drives a man to desperation—or to another woman—but the way she keeps on repeating and repeating and repeating it.

Art is a hard taskmistress. Even an artistic lover seldom has time and energy left for anything much else in this life.

Up to twenty, a girl is constantly trying to read her fate in the leaves or the cards—but, after that, she knows that she can always read it instantly by the first glance into a man's eyes.

Nowadays, when a man actually discovers that he has fallen in love, he considers the matter all settled. There is nothing more to do but find out and tell the girl she also needs and decide on the favors for the ushers.

* * *

When a foreigner says "I love you," it may be merely his way of saying "It's a pleasant evening," but when an American says "I love you" he MEANS it. If you don't believe it, just try to make one of them say it against his will!

Faith is the sublime and beautiful trust that a man has in his wife's corned beef hash.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

SOME misers store their gold away in chests with iron bands, they rock it from the light of day with jealous, greedy hands. For they have hoarded years on years to gain their shining store, paid toll of bitter toil and tears to grasp each farthing more. And they are of an ancient clan for, since the dawn of time, when first the human race began its weary, upward climb, there have been men who, like the bees, sought but to hoard their gains, enduring endless miseries and petty daily pains. For still, one hour repays them all the wearing harts of time, the gleam of gold is magical and hides life's soil and crime. For them no beauty lies in rhymes of love or song or mirth, they find no joy in any dreams that bless or brighten Earth. But, in some dim and gloomy place, close curtained from the light, they clasp their gold in fond embrace; their gold, forever bright! I am a miser, too, I own, with secret, treasured store, and often as I sit alone I count my wealth once more. The smile you gave me long ago, upon a spring-time day, though roses fade before the show that smile blooms sweet and gay. The tender look of love and trust that shone within your eyes . . . and many Summers' blooms are dust, but still those memories rise! I count my treasures once again here in this quiet place, your love that knew no change or wane, the sunlight of your face. Poor misers, they, whose only store is stuff of yellow hue, for I have hoarded so much more in memories of you!

Letters Not Answered Personally. No Attention Paid to Telephone Calls or Anonymous Letters. No Names Published

In Immediate Need

Helping Hand Editor:

A very needy case has come to my attention and I feel sure some of your kind-hearted readers will help this family. There are eight children, the oldest not yet fifteen. The father is a consumptive and cannot work and the mother is soon expecting the stork again. They are greatly in need of mattresses for their beds. The mattresses they were using were in such condition that they had to be burned. Any assistance will be appreciated. L.

So. Boston.

Fairy Godmother

Helping Hand Editor:

I wish you would please thank Miss R. V. She has been so kind to us all. I really think she is a fairy godmother to us. She sent father a suit and to my three brothers she gave some new trousers, percale waists and flannel blouses. I wish I could do something in return for her.

GRACE S.

Elderly Woman in Need

Helping Hand Editor:

I am an elderly woman and for that reason cannot obtain employment at the agencies. I would like to get some sewing, mending or machine stitching or any such work to do at home or would go out to take care of homes for business people for a small salary and go home nights. MRS. J. I.

Very Grateful

Helping Hand Editor:

I want to thank you so much for helping us out. Mrs. C. sent me a box with some things for one of my brothers, and Mrs. F. sent me something for myself. God has heard our prayers. GRACE S.

Shut-In Wants Radio

Helping Hand Editor:

I have been a shut-in for the last six years and now I am confined to bed. Do you suppose one of your kind readers have an extra radio set or one they are tired of, which they could let me have so I could hear a little of what is going on in the world. I have been given a Crystal set by a friend, but cannot receive anything on it, for I am not near a broadcasting station. I would like to have a tube set.

IRVIN R.

House Dresses

Helping Hand Editor:

I have a few house dresses, size 42, which have been worn, but still have lots of wear in them yet, that I would be glad to give to some needy person, together with some girls' dresses to fit a child from 2 to 4 years old. MRS. M. E. S.

Thank you, Mrs. L. S., mother of three little girls, can make good use of all the things you so kindly offer.

Board for Children

Helping Hand Editor:

I am in great need of a place to board my two children, and, as I am only making small wages, I cannot afford to pay any more than $3 a week for each of them. They are good children, healthy and clean. The little boy is four and the girl going on two.

MRS. B.

Need Clothes

Helping Hand Editor:

I have five children and another one expected next month. My husband doesn't work steady, and it takes all he earns to live. I am sick in bed. My two boys who go to school need clothes badly. Their ages are eight and seven years. My other children are two girls, four and two years, and a baby boy one year old. Size of shoes for the boys seven and eight years old are 11 and 12½. I need underwear badly for them all. MRS. E. P.

L., Quincy, help for Charles W. only by the negroes and others only by the whites.

He would give to the whites those parts of Africa "which were practically unoccupied until the European entered them."

But, as he himself says, Africa is the native home of the negroes, "whose numbers are increasing faster than any other population in the world." That being so, then if the whites cannot hold their own in the struggle for existence against a more primitive race, how long would it be before the expanding negro population would take possession of the whole African continent, completely driving out the whites?

It would probably prove impossible to confine the different races to their allotted territories. Everywhere the more advanced would always be tempted to subjugate the less advanced, as has been the rule throughout history, and the temptation would be all the stronger with territorial barriers set up between the races. And, even if segregated, their reaction upon one another could not be prevented, unless, indeed, navigation and aviation, and the spirit of barter and of commercial exchange, were abandoned and forgotten.

That Professor Gregory is keenly aware of the influences which would bring his segregate races into conflict is indicated by the curious suggestion which he makes as to the ultimate place of refuge for the members of the white race. For this purpose he offers Australia, which, he says, might be kept exclusively for the white and be completely occupied by them. He is confident that their science could render even the tropical regions of Northern Australia suitable for the habitation of white men. But what an extraordinary picture this presents to the imagination—the great white race, the originator of science and of the highest civilization, driven for refuge and out off in a remote and confined quarter of the globe, like some discarded forms of other animals also found an asylum!

SEEING A COUNTRY ON FOOT

By DR. FRANK CRANE

ON foot Ferdinand Ossendowski, the famous Polish explorer and the author of the book, "Beasts, Men and Gods," and the other books of travel, is on a trip of exploration through darkest Africa.

Before leaving Paris, he said:

"To see the country, the real country, and the real people, you must live among them. There is but one means of travel which I use, that is walking. To see the country you must see it on foot."

It is a question whether the development of means of transportation have brought people nearer to the heart of nature, or whether it has been so rapid that it has taken them past nature.

People who see the country as it flies past them seated behind the car window do not see the real country. They become intimately acquainted only with the city from which they came and the city to which they go, while all the landscape between them is a confused panorama.

Those who go by automobile usually go so swiftly that they have no time to enjoy the views that nature presents before them. Even those who are managing a horse are kept so busy with their means of transportation as to exclude what is going on around them.

Only those who take their foot in their hand are free. The proverb has it that a naked man goes far. The nearer one is unencumbered by baggage of any kind the more free he is. He is brought into intimate contact with the world. There is nothing between him and nature to take away his attention and nothing but the weariness of his own flesh and the limitations of his own person to stand between him and the complete enjoyment of all that is around him.

He has time to allow nature to sink into his mood and it takes time to adapt one's self to his environment. This cannot be done in a hurry and those whose only travel is by a method of rapid transit miss many secrets which nature has for the tramps and the vagabonds and wanderers who are her more favored children.

It is a question whether the airplane, as the express train and the automobile, is not merely transporting the city minded person through the country and whether one who knows the country only by this means can ever know it at all. At least, he can never know it as Ossendowski and others have known it.

THE CHECKERBOARD OF RACES

By Garrett P. Serviss

Famous Astronomer and Writer on Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

ONE of the most singular of the speculations which the attendants of the British Association for the Advancement of Science were invited to consider, was that offered by Professor J. W. Gregory of Glasgow University on the segregation of the various races of man. Professor Gregory seems to be alarmed by the alleged fact that "when different races live side by side, the more primitive race, unless conditions be imposed upon it fatal to its spirit, will outlive the other whenever the struggle for existence is keen."

If this be indeed a fact and not a mere inference drawn from insufficient data, it might be used as an argument against civilization. But let that pass, and consider Professor Gregory's plan for avoiding the contact of races, supposed to be so fatal to the continued existence of the higher forms.

If fully carried into effect this plan would turn the face of the earth into a racial checker-board. Each of the principal races would have its own allotted region, or square, whereon to dwell and be happy. Each could live undisturbed in accordance with its fundamental peculiarities of body and mind. Naturally each would develop a kind of civilization suited to itself. The dream of a united mankind, all nations dwelling together in comity and harmony, under identical laws and customs, would vanish, and the earth would once more be as effectually divided as it was in ante-geographic times.

But not only that: for in some cases at least, different races would be distributed in groups on a single continent. For instance, Professor Gregory expressly suggested that in South Africa, where it is said that the negro population, at present outnumbering the white three to one, is increasing faster than its rival, the territory might be divided so that some parts would be inhabited

ONCE-OVERS

BEWARE OF THE PITY THAT ENTANGLES

"When your husband says he feels sorry for any woman or girl, look out."

This statement made at a woman's gathering creates a stir.

One other replied, that "when a woman gets to the stage where she feels she should 'mother' some homeless young man it is well for the husband to be on his guard!"

But it is true that dissatrous results and entanglements have come about through a feeling of pity which some man had for a girl and equally as bad have been the misfortunes following the woman who desired at first merely to be motherly to some young man possibly young enough to be her son.

Often the boarder or the roomer becomes too much a member of the family. Husband or wife becomes too much interested to suit the other.

Or something is said in a joke and taken in earnest and kills joy.

The young girl may be flattered merely by the older man's attention or she may be vain enough to wish to show her power.

The young man may wonder just how far he could make a fool of that woman. There is no fool like an old fool who gets the idea of trying to see if he or she cannot be as attractive as in the long since past.
